races home after school to check on his Enkoko project!

Griffin and his parents enjoy selling his eggs in the neighborhood, earning a small income for the parents. Now, through BOHAM's microenterprise chicken (Enkoko) program, Griffin is learning to support children in the program.

Griffin used to get into mischief in the neighborhood, come home late after school, and worry his parents. Thankfully, child gifts are one way that sponsors and ministry partners can give above and beyond to support children in the program.

It has been an incredible year for Bridge of Hope Africa Ministries (BOHAM) and each day we are overjoyed by the life giving work that the Lord is doing on the ground in Uganda. Through the generosity of our sponsors and ministry partners, miracles were made possible and more joy has been added to the lives of many children and their families.

In 2016, BOHAM continued to provide education, microenterprise, and Christian discipleship to more than 60 children with multiple sponsorships per child. These children now have access to education and microenterprise projects with an opportunity to help lift themselves and their families out of the cycle of poverty.

BOHAM also became the recommended partner by Asante Ministries US to reunite former sponsored children with their previous sponsors and assimilate these children into our existing programs in Uganda.

For any sponsored child to succeed, they need to be part of a healthy family and community. This year BOHAM led several community trainings for families in health, hygiene, and showing affection, and performed numerous home visits in the communities we serve. This provides a better understanding of their family needs so we can tackle problems and improve their situations together.

We are truly humbled to see our dream become a reality in 2016. Through our multi-tiered program, BOHAM ensures that these children have immediate options to improve their current situation, and sets them up for meaningful contributions to their communities as they grow and realize their own dreams for the future. We believe this deserves an amina (amen)!

Cousins Hassan and Ibrahim had great difficulties early in life. Hassan’s mother was the victim of sexual assault which resulted in her pregnancy with Hassan. Hassan came to live with his grandmother, Maimuna, after his mother became unfit to raise him. Ibrahim was born a healthy baby to a mother with an autoimmune disorder. Against the advice of others in her village, Ibrahim’s mother breast fed him without seeking treatment for herself and transmitted the disease to Ibrahim. Both of Ibrahim’s parents died of the disease shortly thereafter and he was also left in the care of their grandmother, Maimuna.

Through these difficulties, Maimuna became both mother and father to these children; a role she was forced to play in her older years that she never expected. However, we believe there is hope for Maimuna, Ibrahim, and Hassan — both physically and spiritually. According to Psalm 34:18 (NIV), The LORD is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit. We are thankful that Ibrahim and Hassan have sponsors and the burden of education and health coverage has been lifted off Maimuna! Please join us in continuing to care and pray for this family.
Griffin used to get into mischief in the neighborhood, come home late after school, and worry his parents. Now, through BOHAM’s microenterprise chicken (Enkoko) program, Griffin is learning responsibility as well as agricultural and business skills. After rearing chicks for several months and waiting for them to lay their eggs, Griffin’s hens finally laid eggs in September 2016. Each month, Griffin and his parents enjoy selling his eggs in the neighborhood, earning a small income for the family. From that income, the family can pay for household items and save for their and Griffin’s future needs. Because of the microenterprise component of full sponsorship, Griffin and his family are able to experience a new sense of ownership and pride in their small business. Now, Griffin races home after school to check on his Enkoko project!

40 children and families
In 2016, between 50 and 75 children attended Bible Club at our Wakiso location. At Bible Club, both sponsored and unsponsored children receive a hot meal, play games with their friends, and learn about Jesus. Children are taught Biblical lessons such as the attributes of God, learn how to tangibly share and represent Jesus to others in their community, and memorize Bible verses. Finally, there is always a time for worship and dance — the children’s favorite!
Francis is a child in the sponsorship program who grew up with noticeable health issues. His parents knew something was wrong, but had no funds to take him to the hospital to get checked. Due to his lack of mobility and severe pain, Francis rarely smiled. Thanks to Francis's sponsor, staff were able to accompany Francis on his first trip out of his village to meet with a doctor in the city. There he received a diagnosis and gained an understanding of what needs to happen for his condition to improve. He was diagnosed with cerebral palsy, which affects his limbs, and requires surgery.

Before his diagnosis, Francis didn’t understand what was wrong and his family couldn’t see a way forward. Now, he knows what he needs and has hope for his future recovery through further donations. Now he can’t stop smiling as he knows people care and are invested in his future. Through much love, prayer, and further donations, we can help him complete his much needed foot surgery in 2017.
At BOHAM, we are focused on community. We know that for the children to ultimately succeed, they need to be part of a healthy family and a healthy community. In 2016 our team performed numerous home visits to check on the children and gain a better understanding of their family needs in order to tackle problems and improve their situations together. BOHAM also led several community development trainings in health and hygiene and showing affection in the communities we serve.

Many families lack the basic everyday necessities to fully function and be lifted out of poverty. Providing such basics as a mattress, food package, hygiene kit, or livestock can substantially and tangibly help many families in their time of need. BOHAM found that 80% of families in our program lack proper bedding and 60% of our sponsored children often go without food during school breaks. Thankfully, child gifts are one way that sponsors and ministry partners can give above and beyond to support children in the program.
